Marking Report for ILP Part 2

s1620208

March 4, 2019

Thank you for submitting part 2 of the coursework for ILP. For this part of the course you were marked on the following criteria :

1. Report (20 marks)

2. Implementation (30 marks)

3. Code quality (10 marks)

4. Automated tests (10 marks)

5. Use of your repository (5 marks)

Your raw mark is 43.0 / 75. This is 57.33%. Below you find marks for each individual criterion.

1 Report

Criteria	Marks achieved	Marks worth
Descriptions of Algorithms	8.0	10
Unimplemented features	3.0	3
Additional features	0.0	2
Screenshots	4.0	5
Total Marks	15.0	20

Comments: Overall a good report. You could improve a bit upon clarity and structure. Please do not paste your code in the report.
Clear description
Not a clear description of features
You should clearly showcase what each screenshot is visualising.

2 Implementation

Criteria	Marks achieved	Marks worth
Application compiles	2.0	2
Application starts up	3.0	3
Application runs smoothly	1.0	5
Markers are downloaded and displayed in the correct place on the map	2.0	5
User can send spare change to other players	2.0	5
Bonus features are implemented	3.0	10
Total Marks	13.0	30

Comments: The application crashes at every login attempt.
The application crashes every time I try to login.

3   Code quality

Criteria	Marks achieved	Marks worth
Variable naming	1.0	1
Comments	2.0	3
Code structure	3.0	4
Readibility	1.0	1
Using modern features of the chosen programming language	1.0	1
Total Marks	8.0	10

Comments: Only a few comments and no proper documentation exists.

4   Automated tests

Criteria	Marks achieved	Marks worth
Espresso Tests	2.0	5
Unit Testing	0.0	5
Total Marks	2.0	10

Comments: Your tests must cover all scenarios and edge cases.

5   Use of your repository

Criteria	Marks achieved	Marks worth
Use of commits	1.0	1
Use of separate branches	1.0	1
Use of continuous integration	1.0	1
Use of pull requests	1.0	1
Use of issues to keep track of bugs	1.0	1
Total Marks	5.0	5

Comments: N/A